LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

(WHEREUPON, additional matters were heard by the Court, after which the following excerpt of Deputy Lafonzo Turner's testimony from the proceedings was requested as follows out of the presence of the jury:)

BY MR. ALARIC-LORENZO

Q. Yes, please. Well, there was a particular day after the incident that he made some comments to me when I was on my way to court. And I was downstairs waiting for transport and I told him that I was going to be filing a lawsuit against the county jail as well and that he probably would be losing his job over what he did to Mr. Jones and he made the comment as far as, oh, I won't lose my job over that, I've done worse.

MS. KELLY: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.
Move to strike.

THE COURT: Overruled.

MR. ALARIC-LORENZO: That will be all for the witness. Thank you, Mr. Turner.

THE COURT: Anything -- any cross-examination?
(WHEREUPON, the trial proceeded at this point with no further transcription requested.)
